If for some reason you can no longer make it to the conference, please read the terms and conditions below.

Refunds

If you want to cancel your registration, NCIMS can refund you up until May 31 and release your spot. There will be a $99 charge to cancel and refund your ticket. After May 31, refunds will not be available without emergency circumstances.

Transferring Your Pass

If you can't make it, you may share your ticket privately, but we ask you do not sell it publicly. If you have transferred your ticket, you must notify us by May 31. No transfers can be issued for passes that are cancelled on or after May 31. A sponsorship or exhibitor registration cannot be transferred. Please notify us at info@ncintegrative.org at your earliest convenience.

If you have any additional questions about your registration, please email us at info@ncintegrative.org.
