NCIMS Attendee Eligibility Policy & Conference Refund Policy

NCIMS events are designed for clinical professionals and students pursuing careers in healthcare. As such, registration is open exclusively to:

- Licensed or credentialed clinical practitioners
- Full-time students in a healthcare-related field

Product and service representatives may not register as attendees.
If you represent a company that serves the integrative medicine community and would like to participate, we invite you to explore our sponsorship and exhibitor opportunities, which are designed to facilitate networking and visibility in an appropriate, designated format.

Vendor/Sponsor Participation in Sessions:

- Representatives from companies registered as official sponsors or exhibitors may attend sessions in accordance with CME guidelines and expectations for industry attendees.
- At Grand Rounds, exhibitor representatives are welcome to sit in on sessions, as exhibit and learning spaces are typically shared.

We appreciate your cooperation in maintaining the educational integrity and intent of our events.

Refunds

If for some reason you can no longer make it to the SYNERGY conference and want to cancel your registration, NCIMS can refund you up until May 15 and release your spot. There will be a $99 charge to cancel and refund your ticket. After May 15, refunds will not be available without emergency circumstances.

Transferring Your Pass

If you can't make it, you may share your ticket privately, but we ask you do not sell it publicly. If you have transferred your ticket, you must notify us by May 15. No transfers can be issued for passes that are cancelled on or after May 15. A sponsorship or exhibitor registration cannot be transferred. Please notify us at info@ncintegrative.org at your earliest convenience.

If you have any additional questions about your registration, please email us at info@ncintegrative.org.
